

Appendix: State “Momnibus” Bills Introduced in 2021 (as of 4/26/2021)

Helen Mun* & Madeline T. Morcelle

State	Bill Number & Title (or description)	Primary Author(s)	Status	Major Points of Legislation
CA	SB 65 Description: Maternal care and services	Sen. Nancy Skinner (D)	Referred to Senate Committee on Appropriations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provides Medi-Cal coverage for full-spectrum doula services • Extends Medi-Cal coverage to one year postpartum • Provides a guaranteed minimum income for pregnant people at or below 300% FPL • Improves the CalWORKS program to increase pregnancy supplemental income and emergency housing assistance • Codifies and expands the California Pregnancy Associated Review Board • Expands access to midwifery training programs and incentivizes perinatal providers to practice in underserved communities
IL	HB 158	Rep. Camille Lily (D); Sen.	Enacted	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provides Medicaid coverage for doula services and evidence-based home visiting services

*Helen Mun was a Spring 2021 Intern at NHeLP and is a J.D. Candidate (2022) at Georgetown Law.

	Description: Health care & human services	Mattie Hunter (D)		<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Requires the consultation of practicing doulas and additional experts on doula care in the adoption of rules to administer maternal health provisions • Establishes the Health and Human Services Task Force to systematically review programs and departments and make recommendations to improve maternal health care outcomes • In addition to maternal health provisions, the bill addresses several health care issues related to expanding services to low-income communities, improving health care worker training, mental and substance abuse treatment, and funding and development for high violence communities
NC	SB 632 North Carolina Mominibus Act (Companion bill: HB 507)	Sen. Natalie Murdock (D); Sen. Sydney Batch (D); Sen. DeAndrea Salvador (D) Note: HB 507 is authored by Rep. Julie von Haefen (D); Rep. Zack Hawkins (D); Rep.	Referred to Committee on Rules and Operations of the Senate	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Establishes the Social Determinants of Maternal Health Task Force to address social determinants of maternal health • Establishes the Maternal Mortality Prevention Grant Program to provide funding for community-based organizations offering programs and resources for improving Black maternal health outcomes • Establishes perinatal care patients’ rights to receive key information about their care and actively participate in decisions regarding that care, as well as nondiscrimination protections • Requires the creation or identification of an evidence-based implicit training program for health care professionals in perinatal care, in collaboration with community-based organizations led by Black women

		Carla Cunningham (D); and Rep. Vernetta Alston (D)		serving Black birthing people and a historically Black college or university <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Requires study of access to care and maternal mortality outcomes among pregnant and postpartum veterans. • Provides funding for data collection and research regarding maternal health outcomes during the COVID-19 pandemic, and establishes the Task Force on Birthing Experience and Safe Maternity Care During a Public Health Emergency to develop recommendations on respectful maternity care during public health emergencies
--	--	---	--	--